
Restaurant de l'église, Luzy

Posted by wickham - 2007/12/14 16:56

Opposite the church and the market place in the centre of town. My friend and I, (both non-meat eaters), were having a problem finding a menu in Luzy which didn't include meat, or at least allowed us to eat fish, so we tried this place. Ended up going there three nights on the trot, and although we had the same (only) veggie dish each time, each time it was subtly different, and excellent. The patron and staff are friendly, the ambience ditto - super dining room at the back through the bar. and a terrace at the side of the restaurant. And the BEST chips I have ever had in my life! Honest. Unfortunately we only found them on the final night. I haven't wanted chips since - I'm waiting it go back there. Small menu, but really nice. Plenty for meat-eaters. Good wine, reasonable prices. Thoroughly recommended. Locals use it - always a good sign.

Tel 0386300353

=====